Frequently Asked Questions:

Q: Does the club maintain my handicap?

A: Yes, in conjunction with Golf Australia. We also pay affiliation fees and insurance on your behalf to Golf Australia and South West Golf Association (SWGGA).

Q: Can I play in Club Competitions & Events?

A: Yes, we welcome all Lifestyle Members to participate in daily competitions and member social events. However, Lifestyle Members are not eligible to play in Honour Board/Gold Letter events.

Q: Can I introduce a guest at member guest rates?

A: Lifestyle Core – Yes, though limits apply to the number of guests and frequency.
Lifestyle Social – No.

Q: Can I access reciprocal clubs at the normal member rate (free or discounted)?

A: Yes, all Lifestyle Membership Categories may access reciprocal rights.

Q: Can I book online?

A: Yes. Your Membership details provide access to our online Member Portal and the QGC App, where you may book golf, review your handicap and stay up to date with Club events. Note: Full members have priority booking.

Q: Can I pay for my membership in instalments?

A: Lifestyle Core subscriptions may be paid by direct debit in monthly instalments with management approval – ask our team for details. Lifestyle Social subscriptions must be paid in full upon joining.

Q: How do I use my points?

A: Points will automatically be deducted when booking. Points are refunded on cancellation.

Q: What if I use all my Membership Points allocation?

A: Top-Up Points may be purchased during your Membership Term (refer to the Membership Terms & Conditions for details). Lifestyle Members may also apply to transition to a Full Membership during the year, with discounts applied on a pro-rata basis. Discuss your options with one of our team.

Q: Do Playing Points expire?

A: Membership Points expire at the end of the Membership Term. Top-Up Points do not expire as long as a current Lifestyle Membership is maintained. All points expire upon resignation/cancellation of a Membership or when upgraded to a Full Membership, as the Points system no longer applies.
